Oregon State Fair

The Oregon State Fair has been postponed for various good causes, so as to commence on the last Tuesday of October.

We learn that the grounds selected for the Fair are within some two miles of Salem, and that measures are in progress to fit them up in a manner that shall do honor to the Society and the public spirit of the citizens of the Capital.

We believe that the interests of this State would be advanced by a generous patronage extended to this Society by our Legislature and citizens generally. In all the leading States of Europe and in our own country agricultural associations have been sustained by the Government and the people as institutions of great importance. The late Daniel Webster, a distinguished statesman and farmer of our country, in relation to this subject remarked with great truthfulness and force that "These organizations for agricultural purposes are productive of immense benefit by bringing together the farmers from different sections and enabling them by intercourse with each other to learn many things to them new and interesting. Were no animals presented before you, were no premiums ever offered, still, if the people would come together and converse upon matters relating to their calling, great good will be accomplished. No man's education is complete on leaving the institution where he has received instruction. The greater part of our really valuable education is received by our intercourse with others. As mind acts upon mind the sparks are elicited, the flame is kindled, practice follows, and the man progresses in his education until he is transplanted to another sphere."

These are just suggestions every other class of men in our country other than agriculturalists have long realized the advantage of associate efforts. The clergy, lawyers, merchants, mechanics and physicians have their societies, colleges and lecturers, and no good reason can be presented why farmers should neglect associated efforts for their own advantage. We shall continue this subject hereafter.

THE TERRITORIAL DELEGATE.—Col. W. H. Wallace was elected by the people of Washington Territory as their Delegate to represent them in Congress because they knew that he was sound on the question of the Union, and that he was acquainted with all the local wants of the Territory, and would fulfill his obligations to her. The people of Washington should be heard in Congress and in the Departments of the Government through their Delegate. When this is done Congress will do right and the Government will do right—and both will be sustained by the people of the Territory. Col. Wallace represents the people of Washington Territory and their interests, when he opposes the speculating schemes of Victor Smith for the removal of the Port Entry from Port Townsend to another point, simply, as is regarded, not to advance the public interests but to benefit himself and others. It will be time enough for the Government to further the designs of Smith when it shall be proved that either the public or the people of Washington will be benefitted by the measure.

We here say that our information from friends at Washington proves to us what needed no proof, however, that Col. Wallace is most industriously employed in his duties—stands high among his colleagues and with the Administration. These facts are admitted by many of those who opposed his election, but now admit the excellence of the people's choice.

RECEIVED.—We have the first number of the Western Jour[illegible] [illegible] other rebel concern [illegible] at Albany [illegible] up in the [illegible] Democrat which was suppressed [illegible] some time [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] altered [illegible] [illegible] we only regret that [illegible] chemical part [illegible] cause [illegible] lost.

PRAYING [illegible] [illegible] through Long Tom [illegible] from Umpqua were several times [illegible] cheers for Jeff. Davis [illegible] [illegible] district. Of course the [illegible] and his bands thereabout are good Union men.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to July 22d.

NEW YORK, July 24th.

MEMPHIS, July 16th.—The Grenada Appeal has a New Orleans dispatch denying the truth of the capture of Baton Rouge by Van Dorn. It says the canard was for financial purposes, and also says the rebel army of Mississippi is rapidly swelling and important movements of some kind is believed to be on foot.

WASHINGTON, July 17th.—House adjourned sine die at 2 P. M. to-day. Nearly the entire Senate in session to-day was spent in executive session. The President has approved the Confiscation Act and resolution.

MEMPHIS, July 16th.—Dispatches from Charleston to the 10th say: The enemy landed in force yesterday near Port Royal ferry as if for an attack against the Charleston and Savannah railroad; they retreated on approach of our troops.

NEW YORK, July 18th.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent says we have advices from Warrenton yesterday to the effect that General Hatch had occupied Gordonsville. This excited great consternation among the leading rebels there, who had not the least idea that General Pope would reach that point without a great battle.

CAIRO, July 18th.—An officer direct from Curtis' army confirms the report that Price's forces had crossed the Mississippi according to reports brought to Curtis.

The passage having been effected by parties in flat boats and skiffs at different points within the past ten days.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says Lieutenant Col. Pierson of the 2nd New York regiment arrived here yesterday. He left the front of our army on the peninsula on the 17th, at that time no rebel forces were within 24 miles of this side of James river, but a Balloon reconnoisance discovered a large number of rebels on City Point. It is believed that James river will be blockaded by the rebels at the bluffs at Clarksville.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 19.—Federal gunboats have come down the river to convey the troops which are at this place up the river. All quiet, we have no news from the enemy.

WASHINGTON, July [illegible].—The Richmond Enquirer of the [illegible]th is received. It appears alarmed at the order of the War Department for concentrating the forces of McDowell, Fremont, Banks and Pope, and remarks of the latter that he is notoriously one of the most dangerous of the Union Generals, and an officer of great activity and daring and one who is apt to unexpected things.

WASHINGTON, July 17th.—The Petersburg Express gives the account of planting eight guns in James River and firing on federal transports, and says McClellan's position in this way may be rendered untenable. There is no river of the South which offers more advantages for this mode of warfare than the James River.

Special dispatches to the New York papers state that the advices from Washington up to this evening, state that Gen. Halleck has reached Charlottesville and cut off the last important source of rebel supply. The leading families have received notice that all the spare bedding will be required for our sick soldiers, all the unoccupied rooms within mansions and if necessary the entire building as hospitals.

WASHINGTON, July 21st.—It is positively known that the President, under the advice of Gen. Scott and with the acquiescence of McClellan, has called Halleck to Washington to act as General in Chief of the army of the United States. He will have control of operations in the field, thus relieving McClellan, who will relieve Stanton.

ST. LOUIS, July 21st.—Gen. Halleck left for Washington last evening accompanied by a part of his staff.

WASHINGTON, July 21st.—Gen. Pope telegraphed to the War Department that the cavalry expedition under Gen. King left Fredericksburg at 7 o'clock on the evening of the 19th, and after a forced march made a descent at daylight Sunday on the Virginia Central Railroad at Beaverdam Creek 25 miles west of Hanover Junction, 35 miles from Richmond.

They destroyed Railroads and Telegraphs for several miles and burned the depot which contained a large amount of ammunition and other valuable property. The whole country was thrown into a great state of alarm; the cavalry marched eighty miles in thirty hours.

MEMPHIS, 19.—On the night of the same day the Arkansas run the gauntlet of the fleet, Farragut made an ineffectual attempt to sink her. His entire fleet passed down the river and each vessel poured a broad side into her in passing. A reconnoisance next morning, showed the Arkansas to be undergoing repairs. The rebels acknowledged that our 7 inch steel pointed shell went through her, but assert that this is the only damage she sustained.

LEXINGTON, 19.—The pursuit of Morgan's command was continued yesterday. About noon at Paris the expedition under General Smith came up with Morgan and a fight ensued. From 30 to 40 of Morgan's men were killed and 12 taken prisoners. They broke for Winchester closely pursued by Smith.

NEW YORK, 22.—A Fortress Monroe letter of 20th inst. says Beauregard is in command of [illegible] men on the South side of James river between City Point and Richmond [illegible] over the rebel force.

Second Dispatch.

MEMPHIS, July [illegible]th.—The Grenada papers [illegible] a Vicksburg dispatch [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the mouth of the Yazoo river [illegible] federal gunboats between the mouth of the Yazoo river [illegible] [illegible] Federal gunboats lying above Vicksburg, which [illegible] She went straight through firing as she went, sinking several and damaging others. Many jumped overboard from the federal boats and were drowned. Within the last hour the lower fleet has fled, transports and all, firing up [illegible] boats.

[illegible] papers contain an account of the [illegible] of Gen. [illegible] at Augusta [illegible] the [illegible]th.

A rumor is current at Richmond that President Davis had demanded the surrender of Butler for hanging Mumford; it refused, Davis would hang one of our captured Generals.

CAIRO, July 21st.—A Vicksburg dispatch confirms the report of the escape of the rebel ram Arkansas from the Yazoo. On Tuesday the gunboats Carondelet and Taylor, with the ram Lancaster, started up the river on a reconnoitering expedition; eight miles from the mouth they discovered and suddenly came upon the iron-clad rebel gunboat Arkansas, which immediately opened on our boats with 68 pounders. Our boats maintained a gallant fight for a time, but the channel of the river being too narrow for successful maneuvering, they gradually returned to the mouth of the river, followed by the Arkansas. In passing over the bar at the mouth of the river the Carondelet made a rush at the Arkansas and grappled her. An attempt to board was repelled by a stream of hot water from the Arkansas—at the same time both vessels ran aground and were separated by the shock. The Arkansas started down the river pursued by the Taylor, who kept up a running fight with her greatly superior adversary.

Our fleet lay at Vicksburg with a number of transports, ammunition boats, rams and mortars were lying scattered over a space of nearly two miles. None of the gun boats had steam up, and the ram fleet was so scattered that but few could fire.

The Arkansas passed through without danger, hitting some of our boats as she approached, such of them as could fire returned the fire, but her heavy plating resisted most of the shot. One shot struck her Islandood bow passing through under the plating and ripping it up. The Arkansas continued firing during the whole passage through the fleet. The Benton was struck once; the ram Lancaster also received a shot under both boilers. The Taylor was considerably damaged. The Arkansas now lies under the protection of the batteries at Vicksburg.

GOOD FOR ILLINOIS.—Western Republicans are jubilant over the news that the new Constitution of Illinois, framed by a Pro slavery Convention for the purpose of securing the ascendancy of their party in the State, has been defeated by a majority of 16,000, which will be swelled to 25,000 if the soldiers' vote is permitted to be taken. The choice of a Republican Senator to succeed Mr. Browning and [illegible] Republican Representatives this fall is now regarded as certain.

On the usual [illegible] reward is offered by the Chinese friends of Ah [illegible], the murdered Sacramento Chinaman, for the arrest and delivery to the authorities of Wong Yuen, the murderer. Said Wong Yuen belonged to the Sze Yup Company, and is a medium sized Chinaman, about [illegible] years of age, with closely shaved face. He shows a beard uncommon for a Chinaman on the sides of his face and chin. [illegible]

COMPLIMENT TO ARCHBISHOP HUGHES.—The Board of Aldermen of New York, by a vote of fourteen to one, have voted the freedom of the city to Archbishop Hughes, and adopted a resolution thanking him for his services in behalf of the Union abroad.

A novel way of smuggling is reported in the French papers. A watch maker of Alençon having lately offered some Swiss watches at exceedingly low prices, was asked how he could afford to sell them so cheap. "Oh that is simple enough," he replied. "I bought them of a wild beast showman who had just come from Switzerland." Before leaving Geneva he bought a quantity of watches, which he concealed under the litter of his lion's cage. It is hardly necessary to mention that the Custom House officers at the frontier did not venture to search there for contraband goods.

QUICK TRIP.—The following is the memoranda of a recent trip of the Samuel Merritt.

We discharged Columbia River Bar Pilot July 12th, 6:30 P. M.; arrived at San Francisco Bar July [illegible], [illegible] A. M.—[illegible] hours [illegible] minutes from Bar to Bar, and 60 hours to port, being the shortest trip ever made by a sailing vessel; had strong northwest winds all the passage. July 12, 20 miles W. of Columbia River Bar, saw bark Jane A. Falkinburg, bound in.

THE PORTLAND ACADEMY.—We see by last evening's paper that the Trustees of the Portland Academy are moving in the matter of repairing and improving the premises at the Academy. It was high time, for they were in bad repair, going to decay; they were unattractive and inconvenient. The Academy is an institution of this city of which Portlanders have good reason to be proud. For seven years our children and youth have been well trained there and some of the graduates of the Institution are doing themselves and their alma mater credit by their usefulness and efficiency as educators. As we cannot dispense with the Academy, it is due from the Trustees, patrons and citizens generally, that it be kept in repair, and furnished with facilities and conveniences for doing its appropriate work in the best manner. It is designed to paint and re-seat the Academy, grade the grounds, fence, &c., at a cost of $1,500. We are glad the Trustees have taken the business in hand, and the plan of their beginning is as laudable as the object itself, for the lecture by Bishop Simpson on The Holy Land will be one of rare and thrilling interest. The Bishop has personally visited Palestine and Syria; his feet have pressed the mountains and valleys, and his eyes have beheld the scenes made sacred by the Savior's life and death. The lecture will be well worth the admission price—one dollar, and the avails will go to an object held important by all sensible residents of the city. The lecture will be at the Methodist Church, on Tuesday evening of next week.

LECTURE.—The lecture of Rev. T. Star King at the M. E. Church last evening, was decidedly a master effort, powerful and conclusive. His subject,—"the new nation to arise from the war,"—was handled with extraordinary skill, presenting historical, geological and logical facts with such force and power as to command the undivided attention of the entire audience, and irresistably forcing the conviction that the American nation must and will come out of the present struggle refined, purified and exalted to a much higher, solid and magnificent destiny. There was a large audience of ladies and gentlemen present. We hope to have the pleasure of hearing him again.

ARRIVED.—The Julia arrived at an early hour last evening from the Cascades, bringing down some twenty-five or thirty passengers and some dust in hands of passengers. We saw one man have a pretty heavy load of the stuff, about one hundred pounds, and he seemed to realize the importance of holding on to it like a wise man would under similar circumstances. No connection of express above the Dalles.

The Gen. Wright came down to the Dalles on Sunday evening, and the Okanagan was expected down last night. No later news of importance from the mines.

Lieut. Grove Watson and 18 men of Co. B 2d Cal. Inf'y, encamped two miles from this city Sunday night, and a portion of them embarked yesterday morning for Vancouver, the remainder went in the afternoon boat. They have done some good marching, having left Umpqua on the afternoon of the 16th inst., and being detained two days about Scottsburg by an accident [illegible] considerably damaged their means of transportation.

DULL.—Our city has been rather dull for the last day or two—more so than usual, owing probably to hot weather and the fact that farmers up this valley are now engaged in harvesting, which prevents them from traveling at this time.

From California.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21st.—The steamship Golden Gate took 234 passengers, and $1,114,647 to New York, $273,100 to England, and $13,000 to Panama.

The cash receipts for duties on merchandise at the Custom House since June 25th are $291,475 96.

John B. Boyce is appointed Postmaster at Hillsborough, Washington county, Oregon.

The Union Democratic County Committee agreed to-night to unite with the Republican County Committee in Convention, for the nomination of a Union ticket. The fusion is complete, the decision being unanimous.

In consequence of the new tariff, merchants have mostly withdrawn goods from bonded warehouses. The law does not go into effect till August 1st, by which time all goods will be taken out.

A Salt Lake dispatch of to-day says the first stage since the temporary suspension of service to change the route to Cherokee Trail, left there this morning, and we may look for regularity in overland mails hereafter.

Markets not so excited to-day. Purchasers fewer, and sellers more willing to realize than hold till further advances.

An attempt was made last week to burn the American Theater.

EMIGRANTS GOING TO SALMON RIVER.—A dispatch from Salt Lake City, dated July 21st, says: We are informed that about one-third of the entire emigration this year has struck out for Salmon river, leaving the main road some twenty-five miles east of this city.

From a private letter, dated Snake river, July 6th, from E. R. Purple, we learn that about two hundred persons, on their way to Salmon river, and a majority of whom are from this city, had arrived at Snake river. Flour was selling at $27 per hundred at that point.

Courting Scrape.

"…ha! I say, Mister, did I ever … it a scrape that Sal, here, and me … when we was a courtin' … was d?"

"No, I believe not."

"Ha! ha! ha! Then I must tell you about it, for it was—"

"Now, Dave, don't … and get to tellin' that old yarn agin, for its too bad, I declare 'tis!"

"Hold yer tater, old 'oman, and don't interrupt me afore the gentleman—you know every word of it is true, so you do."

"No, I don't know any such thing, so I don't."

"Well, as I'se agoin' to say, Mister, it was rich. We all lived in old Kentuck then, and a purty wild sort of country it was, too; Plenty of bars, and painters, and Injuns, and sitch like. Why, sir, we thought no more of killin' a bar then than I think of killing a hog now, and you may be sure I don't think much of that.

"Well, as I'se a sayin', it was a purty wild country. We all lived there, and old Mr Thatch, old Tom Thatch—Sal's dad—he lived there too, and a mortal queer old customer he was, I can tell you. When he built his house he dug a hole in the side of the hill for it to set in—the top of the house and the top of the hill were just even. Then, you see, he didn't have to build no chimbley, cause why, he just went to work on top of the hill to diggin' a hole about five feet acrost, and he kept on a diggin' it till he got clean down to a level with the floor, and then he came down into the house and dug out a all-fired, bouncin' big fire place, till it reached the bottom of the hole, after which, you see he was ready to fire up.

"Well, one orful cold night in the winter, arter Sal, here, and me, we'd got things purty well along."

"Now, Dave, do for goodness sakes quit a tellin' on that! I think I'd be ashamed on my self, so I would!"

"Pucker up, old 'un, pucker up till I get through, and then it'll come your turn. As I'se a sayin', we got things purty far along—that is, I'd popt the question to Sal, and she'd said yes, and we'd both well nigh got over it—"

"Now, Dave!"

"And I'se a goin' to ax the old folks in the mornin.'"

"Fur shame!"

"No, not fur shame, but fur Sal, though I must own as how I felt kinder ashamed to do it.

"Well, Sal and me, we was a sittin' up afore the fire—which was a orful big one, made out'n logs—and we was a sayin' lovin' things to one another, and a huggin' and a kissin'."

"Dave! Dave! you know that ain't so, now, so you do. You know well enough that I wouldn't a begun to a let you kiss me afore we was married!"

"As I'se agoing to say, we was a settin' up afore the fire enjoyin' ourselves purty well.—It was away late in the night."

"Shockin'—sitch a man! You'd better go fur to try to make folks think we were orful sorts of people, and that I wasn't no better nor I should a bin! I wouldn't a sit up away late with you or any other young man when I was a gal, to a saved your plagued necks, so I wouldn't."

"Old 'oman, I want you to quit a interruptin' me when I'm a talkin' to the gentleman, so I do. If you don't dry up I'll tell him about how that time was when Bill Towers come to your dad's."

"Stop, now, none of that—you hush, Dave, and I will—"

"It's a bargain. Well, it was away late in the night. The old man and old woman was in bed a snorin' away like sixty, and Sal and me, we was a enjoyin' ourselves purty well afore a rousin' big fire.

"Sez I to her, 'Sal, you can't begin to guess how well I likes ye!'

"Sez she to me, 'I specks yer a jokin,' ain't yer?'

"Sez I to her, 'All but that! I likes ye better nor my own life. If I'd see ye in the river a droundin', I'd jump right in and drown with (smack) you, so I would!'

"Sez she, 'O, no, Davey, (smack) I wouldn't let ye. But I specks yer (smack) a jokin'!'

"Sez I, 'No indeed, I'm in cold yarnest, if it war my last words on yearth! I wish I may die this minit if I don't like ye better'n all the rest of the gals in the world; yes, better'n enny thing else! If I don't (smack) tell ye the solid truth I hope the Old Scratch may come and carry me away afore I draw another breath!'

"These last words were scarcely out'n my mouth afore kerthunder came some orful, skerry, tremenjous big lookin' thing down the chimbly, kersplatter, right inter the fire and commenced a kickin' the blazin' chunks about the room, and makin' a orful onearthly noise. Sal and me, we gin a couple of dreadfulest screams ever before hear'n in old Kentuck, and jumpin' up lit on the bed right atop of the old man and the old 'oman, and that was the last thing we know'd for a minnit or two."

"When Sal and me, we came to our senses, we lookt up, and thar we seed her dad and her dad's old blind mare, and her dad was a leadin' her dad's old blind mare out'n the house by the foretop, and there was a orful smell of burnt hair in the room. Poor old mare! she'd got to stumblin' around, a pickin' at the green grass what the heat of the fire had caused to grow about the top of the old man's patent chimbley, and seein' as how she couldn't see a stim of anything, the first thing she know'd she slipped in, and that's all on it!"

THE DETERMINED NORTH.—Deering, the law partner of Senator Merritt of Mariposa, writes from New York, under a recent date, the following statement of the war and Union feeling in that community:

The North is united. Probably there never was so unanimous, so decided and determined a feeling in any country as in the Loyal States at present regarding the rebellion. They are determined to crush out all treason at all hazards, and for that purpose are ready to make any sacrifices that may be necessary. Half a million of men can be raised now easier than one hundred thousand were a year ago. Their blood is all heated, and one feeling animates all.

ANOTHER WAY OF LOOKING AT IT.—Monster—I'm afraid I'm sitting on your crinoline, ma'am.

Angelic Young Lady—Oh! never mind, sir, it's of no consequence, you can't hurt it.

Monster—No, ma'am, it's not that; but the confounded thing hurts me!

The Burning of Cotton.

The cotton burning of this region furnishes some instances of brutal cruelty that "harrow up the soul."

One poor farmer, a little way from town, was favored by Providence with five bales.—These with a rifle that cost him twenty five dollars, about comprised his worldly possessions. Upon these his family were entirely dependent. The regimentaled cotton burners came. They spoke in the name of the Confederacy. The poor man implored that his five bales might be saved. They were all the property he had in the world. This was impossible. He begged that one bale might be left to him. The cotton burners were inexorable. They applied the torch. The poor man's five bales were consumed. The cotton burners turned rifle searchers. The poor man said "It cost me twenty-five dollars. Give me five for it. I haven't a dollar in the world." The cotton burners were deaf to every entreaty of the poor man. They destroyed the cotton and carried away his rifle. He is in this city now begging for food and clothing.

A Louisiana planter, under similar circumstances produced a very dissimilar result. The cotton burners came, they saw, they departed.

"I have come to burn your cotton, sir."

"By what authority?"

"By the authority of General Beauregard."

"You will not burn my cotton."

"We will burn your cotton."

"Go about it then. But it is my opinion, gentlemen, that you will not burn it."

"What do you propose to do? You don't mean to say that you will show any opposition to our authority?"

"I simply mean to say that you will not burn my cotton. Bob, bring a coal of fire."

The fire is brought.

"Gentlemen, there is the fire, and yonder are one hundred bales of cotton. Proceed."

"Your conduct is very extraordinary, sir. I should like to know what you mean."

"Well, sir, I mean that if you attempt to burn that cotton I will scatter your brains so far and wide that no power in heaven or earth can bring them together again. Here, boys, that cotton is yours; defend it or starve."

"D—d strange conduct," mutters Mr. Officer sullenly. "We'll attend to your case, sir. We are going down the river; we will give you a visit on our return."

"Do. Whenever you make up your mind to burn my cotton, by all means come and burn."

The cowed officer and posse "fell back in good order." The valiant Louisianian saved his cotton. He has had no second visit from Beauregard's cotton burners.

I have yet to hear of an instance of voluntary submission to this cruel cotton "order," of Beauregard. In thousands of cases remonstrance, threats of men and tears of women and children were of no avail.—Memphis Cor. N. Y. World, June 20.

Of all earthly music, that which reaches the farthest into heaven, is the beating of a loving heart.

Foote on being scolded by a lady, said: "I have heard of tartar and brimstone, you are the cream of one and the flower of the other."

A gentleman having a large six-shooter in his hand, was asked—"Pray, sir, is that a horse pistol?" "No, sir," he replied, "it's only a Colt's."

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order, should make a TIGHT LOCK-STITCH, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel.

The undersigned are General Agents for the general supervision of these unrivalled machines for Pacific States and Western Coast of Mexico.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician in the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

OFFICE HOURS—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, [illegible] General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care, a [illegible] permanent cure. Private diseases are the great [illegible] to health, as they are the first cause of [illegible], and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a speedy grave. But should the disease and its treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marry, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing [illegible] in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, [illegible] untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of Self-Abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by [illegible] and sanctioned by the most eminent [illegible]. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of [illegible] from the pages of [illegible], who having recovered their former health and [illegible] their use in [illegible] authenticated by [illegible] their [illegible].

Certificate.—The undersigned [illegible] those who may be unfortunately [illegible] afflicted [illegible] obtained [illegible] sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the [illegible] recovery of his health. [illegible] symptoms incident to the [illegible] possible [illegible] perform even the most trifling duty [illegible] ordinary avocations of life [illegible] after a few weeks [illegible] more alarming [illegible] my disease being [illegible] would be of little [illegible] my health strength [illegible] with but a faint [illegible] examination my case [illegible] instantly relieved me [illegible] head. Encouraged by the [illegible] immediately under his care [illegible] his directions [illegible] ideas collected [illegible] weakness of my [illegible] body on the slightest alarm [illegible] and evil foreboding [illegible] to others, the inability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco:
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1860. Signed [illegible] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 3d, 1856.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is now three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but I thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those emissions which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me, gratefully yours,

THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was inclined to believe so) to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would not assist me or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state and having, previous to my affliction, lost all the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services; regardless of which however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted to make the case public, in order that the unfortunate in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
